

Pragma Securities named one of New York City's best places to work for second consecutive year

XX October 2018 – New York: Pragma Securities (Pragma), a multi-asset quantitative trading technology provider, has been named by Crain's Business as one of New York City's Best Places to Work for the second consecutive year.

Crain's conducted a confidential survey of more than 20,000 New York City employees, gathering information on working conditions, benefits and corporate culture. The final list of 100 companies "share a commitment to creating a supportive, collegial and empowering workplace".

Pragma was set up in 2003 and serves customers in North America and Europe and provides trading technology tools for equity, foreign exchange and futures products. Established in 2003, it continues to be led by Co-Founder and CEO David Mechner and employs approximately 50 people.

David Mechner, Co-Founder and CEO, comments: "I see our culture as key to our success, so it is very gratifying for Pragma to again be named one of New York City's Best Places to Work. As our company grows, it is a great source of pride that we continue to be able to provide our employees with growth and challenge in a positive, open environment."

– ENDS –

Media Enquires

Chatsworth Communications
contact@chatsworthcommunications.com
+44(0)20 74409780

About Pragma

Pragma is an independent, quantitative trading technology provider specializing in algorithmic and analytical services. Pragma's broker-neutral, multi-asset trading solutions power traditional asset managers, hedge funds, broker-dealers, global banks, and exchanges. Pragma does not trade proprietary or internalize order flow. For more information, please visit www.pragmatrading.com